

Firenze Film Festival 2024

13 settembre al Cinema Astra Firenze

The Firenze Film Festival 2024 will take place on the 13th of September at the Astra Cinema Firenze. This year the annual independent film festival will screen 7 feature and short films by local and international filmmakers.

Celebrating independent cinema and supporting upcoming talents from all around the world, the FFF2024 blends various genres and styles. The Festival opens with 'Surviving Brandenburg' by Zoltan Paul, a feature comedy film about getting older, the trials and tribulations of the post-midlife crisis, a film with a highly topical reference to the political situation in Germany and Europe.

Featuring 6 shorts of various genres, the second programme is dedicated to the art of short films and aims to highlight filmmakers of all walks of life. Marcel Hobi's multi-awarded drama animation 'Love Bubbles', the documentary 'The Father's Place' by the Italian director Francesco D'Ascenzo and the sci-fi comedy 'Eindis Ends It All' by Tamara Rosenfeld (Untied States) are some of the films in the programme.

For one more year, the Firenze Film Festival celebrates independent cinema and showcases filmmakers from all walks of life.
